

Okay, great. So I agree with the earlier comments. I'm a South San Jose resident and a hiking enthusiast and a nature enthusiast, and I think that the AC-1 alternative, the A combination one, is the way to go versus using our valuable resources with the Coyote Valley floor, the Coyote Valley orchard. And please please take that into consideration all of these requests here. Thanks so much.