

1 5.13 PUBLIC SERVICES

2 Public services are typically provided to development projects by a variety of local purveyors (e.g., 3 city, county, special district, and school district). The availability of services vary depending on 4 the level of development in the area. The project would require no public services; therefore, no
5 discussion of the public services setting is necessary.